1. Greeks who choose repatriation to Greece are permitted to take with them 40 kilograms of baggage. Customs inspection of the repatriates' luggage is very strict. Greeks have been threatened with internment in special camps at Craiova, Caracal, and Rosiori-de-Vede if they did not leave Rumania.
2. In Braila certain so-called "Greek refugees from the monarcho-fascist terror" in Greece have been recently observed. These new arrivals are, in reality, Albanian, Bulgarian, Turkish, and Macedonian Communists. Within a week after their arrival in Braila these Communists went on strike at their places of employment because they were given manaliga (corn meal mush) twice during that time. The strikers demanded that they receive bread and meat, in accordance with promises made to them when they agreed to come to Rumania. The local authorities fulfilled their demands.
